

The Centro Linguistico Italiano Dante Alighieri is a language school specialized to teach Italian, in Rome (Italy). CLIDA is officially authorized by the Italian Ministry of Education and has been in operation since 1994 in Rome. The school is also one of the founding members of the Association of Italian Language Schools in Italy, ASILS. Our center is designed to teach Italian as a second language, providing all levels according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. All courses are held and accompanied by well experienced teachers with university degrees.

The Rome centre is housed in a stylish turn of the century building, at 1 Piazza Bologna. It is within easy reach of the city centre and all other areas, amply served by Underground Line B and many bus routes. The classrooms are airy and bright, providing an excellent space for students to engage in learning. The picturesque terrace is an added feature which students enjoy as a place to meet during session breaks.

50+ CLASS PROGRAM 2025

Our Senior program is intended for mature people from around the world wishing to combine the study of the Italian language with a social program which provides a range of organised activities and excursions in the Eternal city to help you get the most of your stay.

Classes are small enough for students to be given the personal attention necessary to improve their knowledge of the Italian language quickly. Italian is the only language spoken during the lessons. We offer classes at all levels, from elementary to advanced, taught exclusively by qualified native teachers.

The aim of our courses is to enable you to use Italian effectively and fluently in general, everyday situations. The course enable the students to develop the practical communication skills with special emphasis on speaking, pronunciation, listening, writing and reading. The lessons are held in a friendly and enjoyable classroom environment.
