

The Centro Linguistico Italiano Dante Alighieri is a language school specialized to teach Italian, in Rome (Italy). CLIDA is officially authorized by the Italian Ministry of Education and has been in operation since 1994 in Rome. The school is also one of the founding members of the Association of Italian Language Schools in Italy, ASILS. Our center is designed to teach Italian as a second language, providing all levels according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. All courses are held and accompanied by well experienced teachers with university degrees.

The Rome centre is housed in a stylish turn of the century building, at 1 Piazza Bologna. It is within easy reach of the city centre and all other areas, amply served by Underground Line B and many bus routes. The classrooms are airy and bright, providing an excellent space for students to engage in learning. The picturesque terrace is an added feature which students enjoy as a place to meet during session breaks.

Dolce Vita Romana PROGRAM 2025

Our Dolce Vita Romana program is aimed at students from all over the world who can stay in Rome for only 1 or 2 weeks and wish to combine the study of the Italian language with a program that includes a series of organized activities and excursions in the Eternal City to help them make the most of their stay.

Classes are small enough to allow students to receive the personal attention they need to quickly improve their knowledge of Italian. Italian is the only language spoken during classes. We offer courses at all levels, from elementary to advanced, taught exclusively by qualified native teachers.

During the free activities that are meant to make you discover Rome in all its most pleasant and attractive aspects for a student-tourist you can employ what you learned in school and accompanied by a teacher who knows Italian and the city well, you can enjoy a week of Roman-style life.
